

City of Delta Junction Backup Scale House Operator

Responsibilities: Available to sub for Scale House Operator during public business hours at the Delta Junction Landfill (Mile 257.2 Richardson Highway). Scale House Operator opens front gate and operates computerized weigh scale.

Wage: Starting pay $15.04/hour (DOE), 6-26 hours per week, Tuesday through Saturday, as needed. Part-time, on-call position does not include paid holidays or health benefits, but does include accrued leave.

Qualifications:

- Must be able to operate a computer, handle money transactions (cash or card), and have basic bookkeeping skills
- Must be able to deal with the public in a courteous manner
- Must familiarize self with Waste Acceptance and Handling Policy in the Delta Junction Landfill Operations and Monitoring Plan (available at City Hall)
- Must accommodate occasional inspections
- Must lift occasionally, i.e. lift waste during a load inspection
- Must be able to communicate with Landfill Equipment Operator at all times
- Must be bondable
- Must dress appropriately for job
- Must work without supervision
- Must carry a valid Alaska driver's license and a cell phone
- Must eat on the job when there is a break in traffic (no paid lunch break)

Application form available at City Hall (2288 Deborah Street, 8:00-5:00, M-F) or on the City website (deltajunction.us/formsdownload). All applications must be delivered to City Hall by 5:00pm, May 18.

New hires must comply with the City of Delta Junction drug screening policy.

ADVERTISEMENTS

City of Delta Junction Backup Scale House Operator

Visit deltajunction.us/employment for job description. Applications available at City Hall or online (deltajunction.us/formsdownloads). Must be turned in at City Hall by 5:00pm, May 18.